

From One Community to Another A Wisdom Box Journey of Connection

The Wisdom Box is one of the most exciting and symbolic elements of the Indigenous Yatra, carried from village to village in the hands of community volunteers as it travels across forest paths, dusty rural roads, and lively hamlets. With every stop, it sparks dialogue, revives forgotten stories, and encourages people to share their wisdom, traditions, and memories. As the box moves, it becomes a bridge between generations, uniting elders, youth, and women, and weaving together the cultural and ecological knowledge that strengthens community bonds and collective identity.
